

universität wien

IACPIL

Interdisciplinary Association of Comparative and Private International Law

Free Belgian
Beer & Waffles

Association
Henri Capitant

The Reform of Belgian Property Law and Law of Obligations

28 November 2024, 14:00 – 18:00

University of Vienna

Schenkenstraße 8-10, Seminar room Roman Law, 3rd Floor

The Belgian legal system is undergoing fundamental changes, reflecting Belgium's efforts to adapt its legal framework to contemporary challenges. The University of Vienna, the Association Henri Capitant (German and Belgian branch) and the IACPIL are therefore organising a joint conference on the amendments to the Belgian property law, special contracts law and the law of obligations and securities.

Programme

14:00 – 14:05

Welcome

Matthias Lehmann, University of Vienna

14:05 – 14:10

Greetings

Her Excellency Caroline Vermeulen, Ambassador of the Kingdom of Belgium in Austria, Slovakia, Slovenia, and Bosnia and Herzegovina

14:10 – 14:15

Introduction

Bea Verschraegen, University of Vienna

14:15-15:00

The New Belgian Property Law: Innovation in Tradition

Vincent Sagaert, University of Leuven
Pascale Lecocq, University of Liège

15:00 – 15:45

The Reform of the Belgian Law of Obligations: Nihil Novi Sub Sole?

Rafael Jafferli, Université Libre de Bruxelles

15:45 – 16:15

Beer and Waffles Break

16:15 – 17:00

The Draft Book 7 of the Belgian Civil Code on Special Contracts

Benoît Kohl, University of Liège

17:00 – 17:45

Personal and Real Securities: Rationalisation and Seeking a Better Balance Between the Parties' Interests

Michèle Gregoire, Université Libre de Bruxelles
Christine Biquet, University of Liège

17:45 – 18:00

Closing Remarks

Prof. Matthias Lehmann, University of Vienna

Please register by 22 November 2024 at: service.rechtsvergleichung@univie.ac.at

Online Participation via Zoom possible:

