EAPIL Winter School in European Private International Law: CROSS-BORDER CHALLENGES OF TECHNOLOGIES

University of Insubria, Department of Law, Economics and Cultures
WINTER 2027

THE WINTER COURSE

Coordinator: Silvia Marino

Scientific Committee: Silvia Marino, University of Insubria; Javier Carrascosa González, University of Murcia; Konstantinos Rokas, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki; Anna Wysocka-Bar, Jagiellonian University in Kraków.

Advisory Board: Costanza Honorati, University of Milan - Bicocca; Thomas Kadner Graziano, University of Geneva; Tobias Lutzi, University of Augsburg; Johan Meeusen, University of Antwerp; Veronica Ruiz Abou-Nigm, Edinburgh Law School.

The European Association of Private International Law (EAPIL), together with the Department of Law, Economics and Cultures of the University of Insubria, with the Law Faculty of the University of Murcia (Spain) and the Law Faculty of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland), is organising the Third EAPIL Winter School. The 2027 edition will be devoted to “Cross-border challenges of Technologies”. Particular attention will be paid to the impact of digitalisation and artificial intelligence on private international law, including issues of jurisdiction, applicable law and the protection of fundamental rights. The approach will combine theory and practice, with wide room for interaction with the attendees.
